Plank Splinters from Cohen's Platform

INDEPENDENT
SENATOR

NOT CONTROLLED BY THE BIG INTERESTS

In the Legislature of 1909 I fought the Immigration Tax Bill. WHY? The bill which called for a 2 per cent. special income tax, appropriated the entire amount of revenue so derived for the benefit of the BIG INTERESTS only.

I favored the bill provided that 25 per cent. of the revenue would go to PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS which would give the PEOPLE some benefit.

The bill came up in the Finance Committee of which I was a member but of which a Plantation Man was Chairman. He insisted on 100 per cent. or the whole amount going for the benefit of the SUGAR INTERESTS only.

He controlled the committee and I was told that if this bill was beaten, my plan of 75 per cent. for the SUGAR INTERESTS and 25 per cent. for the PEOPLE'S INTERESTS would then be taken up.

They knew they controlled the Legislature and that I had no chance, so they felt safe in making this proposition.

However, I fought the bill; my speech in the House against it being a matter of record. I lost, but my fight bore fruit and two years later when the platform was prepared for the campaign of two years ago, the BIG INTERESTS who are controlling the Republican party allowed an appropriation of $200,000 per year for two years to be applied to Public Improvements. Thus I carried my point for the time being, but I HAD "QUEERED" MYSELF WITH THE BIG INTERESTS. They declared me a dangerous person; one who thinks too much of the PEOPLE and not enough of the BIG INTERESTS; the word went forth, "COHEN MUST BE KEPT OUT OF THE LEGISLATURE AT ANY COST".

In the last Republican Convention over 2.3 of the delegates wanted me as one of their nominees for SENATOR, but the BIG INTERESTS cracked the whip and by forcing the open ballot compelled delegates, in dread of the power over them to vote as they dictated.

For fear that other nominees might have views similar to mine, they took no chances but dictated the nomination of out and out PLANTATION MEN for the SENATE.

I ask each and every voter: Are you going to stand for such a condition? ARE YOU GOING TO ALLOW THE SENATE OF HAWAII TO BE TURNED INTO AN EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE PLANTERS' ASSOCIATION?

REPUBLICAN PARTY IN FORMAL
OPENING OF COUNTY CAMPAIGN

Kuhio Points with Pride to His Record in the National Legislature

Republicans of the city and county of Honolulu formally opened their campaign last Saturday night with a rousing mass-meeting at Aala park. Practically every candidate, both of the legislative and county tickets, made an address to the voters, and the program was a continuous procession of speeches interspersed with music by a quartet club.

Delegate Kuhio's address was the most important of the evening, though two veteran Republican politicians, W. C. Achi and George Davis, also took a hand in the spell-binding, speaking on various issues of the campaign. Achi referred particularly to some of the campaign arguments being advanced by the Democrats, taking a fling at their attempt to make votes out of the late mosquito campaign and the dispensation of lots on Punchbowl. Achi showed where the Democrats are making false statements in their appeal to the ignorance and prejudice of the voters.

The rally was attended by a large crowd, hundreds standing in the rear of the rows of chairs which had been provided in great numbers. One of the features of the rally was the large attendance of women, and the fair sex gave just as close attention as those who already have the voting privilege.

Robert W. Shingle, chairman of the Republican territorial central committee, presided, and introduced the speakers with a word for each. He made a brief introductory address in which he declared that the Republican party in Hawaii is standing for progress as it has always stood, and that the party platform embodies the plans for improvements in government that everyone wishes.

W. C. Achi was the first speaker and then in rapid succession followed the various candidates, who were all seated on the platform. W. T. Rawlins spoke during the evening, principally on behalf of Capt. Robert Parker Walpa, candidate for sheriff.

Delegate Kuhio's speech referred occasionally to the Fisher investigation and the things that brought it about, and he told the people that the investigation had been a good thing, saying that his charges had borne fruit. He declared himself willing to stand on his record and pointed to that record as better than that of the delegates from the late territories of Arizona and New Mexico.

He said in part: "I want to call your attention to my record in congress; I think I can say this, that your Delegate has accomplished more in congress for the people than any other Delegate."

TODAY AND TOMORROW

Today and tomorrow are the last two days on which you can get your name on the Great Register, thereby giving you the privilege of casting a vote at the coming election.

You, who have not registered, are you going to wait until tomorrow night, and then, perchance, become one of a line of delinquents that will reach from the Clerk's office to the neighborhood of the fish market.

The registration office will be open tonight and tomorrow night, and if you have not the time to go down and register before dinner do so after dinner. You may find a crowd there lands than have the Delegates from New Mexico and Oklahoma ever been able to do for their Territories. They have more power. I have less, but I have had results, which are what count in the long run.

"As your representative I am not one of those men who make speeches in congress for home consumption. You read those in the Congressional Record by the yard. Does this kind of speechmaking accomplish any good? I have never asked anything for Hawaii that we have not received. I do not introduce bills for things I know we can never get. I don't make speeches. While I have been opposed to the administration on certain matters of policy, I am not opposed to the planter nor his interests. I am not a fool to fight against sugar, which is the mainstay of this Territory. In regard to my position on the home-stead question, I feel that I am right and that I am making a fight for the common people of Hawaii. During the ten years of this Territory, since annexation, what has there been done toward the Americanization of these islands? There is no apparent improvement from an American point of view. When Roosevelt was President and Carter was governor here, the President insisted that Americanization should be the foremost thing to work for in Hawaii. Was it done? Instead, we have imported thousands of Filipinos and lowered our standards. What we want is European immigration and work toward the eventual Americanization of Hawaii and make of these islands a real American community.

Government by Commission. "I believe the time is coming when we will have government by commission if we don't look out, and if we don't fight the way I am fighting today. Shall we turn the electorate of this Territory into the hands of aliens? I say no! If we don't Americanize Hawaii properly, what will those in authority do? Our votes will be taken away from us and we will have government by commission. The last census showed the Japanese children were more than equal to the children of the other races here. Now, this is something serious, and we must be prepared to meet the issue.

"In my fight against the administration I have been sincere. I feel I am right, and that is why I have made the fight. There is nothing personal in the whole matter. I am not fighting against the middleman, the poor man, and for all of us. I am right and everybody says the best thing which ever happened for Hawaii was to have Secretary Fisher come here and investigate conditions of our island life. I think so, and agree with them."

ahead of you, but you will find a bigger crowd tomorrow night. According to the County Clerk there are quite a number who should be on the register but are not, and it is to these people that the appeal to register is made.

The register will close tomorrow night at midnight, and there will be no getting your name on early the next morning, for the register is going to stay closed until after election. Go register this afternoon or this evening and have it over with.

PERSONALITIES

Edwin K. Fernandez, candidate for representative from the Fifth district, will be an arrival from Hilo, Hawaii, tomorrow morning. In his letter to Mr. B. von Damm, chairman of the executive county committee, he stated that while in Hilo his right eye was injured, necessitating his becoming a patient in the Hilo hospital.

FOR PHYSICIANS AND HOSPITALS

If Bright's Disease is incurable, how are we to account for letters like the following?

Mr. John Anderson, 660 Bryan avenue, Fort Worth, Texas, wrote on December 6, 1910, from which we extract:

"I would like to have your opinion and will give you my symptoms. My legs, thighs and stomach are badly swollen. My doctor tried strong purgatives to relieve the dropsy, but to no purpose. Four months ago the swelling was so bad that my lungs were full and the elimination was almost solid with albumen. I was in bed three months previous to taking the Renal Compound. It has done me more good than anything else, but I am still bedfast."

Prescriptions were sent to aid the Compound to reduce the dropsy.

On January 27, 1911, Anderson again wrote as follows:

"I wish to thank you for the letter and prescriptions. I have completely recovered. I had a test made two days ago and am perfectly free from albumen. Barring weakness I feel as well as I ever did. I have been out of bed just three weeks, having been confined to bed nine months. It has taken about twenty-five bottles to cure me. Of course I was in a terrible condition and the results have surprised all who knew how bad I was. I do not suppose you need a testimonial, but you are perfectly welcome to use my name if you wish."

Charles F. Walsh, a California birdman, was instantly killed at Trenton, N. J., when the upper plain of his machine became loosened while doing a spiral glide.

The wife of Dr. R. Bernard Balguy, a prominent London physician, was robbed of $3,000 worth of diamonds at Santa Monica, Cal.

REPUBLICANS OFF IN BUSY
CAMPAIGN; MANY SPEECHES

After the declaration of political war was officially made last Saturday night by the leaders of the Republican party at Aala Park, the regular Republican nominees, at noon today addressed the employees of the Honolulu Iron Works. Some of the candidates spoke at the Oceanic dock, where another noon hour meeting was held under the direction of the headquarters leaders. At both of these places, the speakers were cheered and applauded most enthusiastically by the audiences.

Those who addressed at the Iron Works meeting were Col. Sam Parker, David Notley, E. H. Paris, C. G. Bartlett. On the Oceanic dock, George F. Renton, J. M. Dowsett and Robert Parker Walpa talked to the men there.

This evening, other political meetings will be held, one at the Atkinson Park, and the other on the Kamehameha IV Road, Kalihi. Louis Kane will preside at the meeting at Atkinson Park and Harry Frazer will be chairman of the meeting at the latter place.

The speakers at the Atkinson Park meeting tonight are Geo. F. Renton, A. S. Kaleiope, Six Representatives, Sam Parker, Geo. Geo. Smithies, J. W. Cathcart, Capt. Parker, David K. Notley, E. F. Paris, Chas. N. Arnold and Andrew Cox.

The following will speak on the Kamehameha IV Road: J. M. Dowsett, Six Representatives, Sam Parker, Geo. Smithies, David Kalauokalani, Jr., Jas. Bicknell, Chas. Coster, C. G. Bartlett, Carlos Long, John B. Enos. According to the leaders of the headquarters, Col. Parker and Geo. Smithies, will speak at both of these meetings tonight.

Tomorrow evening, one meeting will be held at the residence of W. C. Achi, fifth district, and another at Kamolihi. Achi will preside at his place, while Mr. Freitas will be chairman of the meeting at Kamolihi.

The speakers at the meetings tomorrow evening will be: Dowsett, Renton, Six Representatives, George Smithies, J. W. Cathcart, Capt. Parker, Kuhio, Renton, Kaleiope, C. G. Bartlett, David K. Notley, Chas. N. Arnold, Carlos A. Long, E. F. Paris, John B. Enos, Andrew Cox, Sam Parker, Jas. Bicknell, David Kalauokalani, Jr., Chas. Coster.

WOMAN IN KANSAS
DRAGGED BY HER
HAIR IN RUNAWAY

PITTSBURG Kas., Sept. 26.—Mrs. A. W. Miller of Denver was fatally injured here this afternoon when the horse she was driving ran away. Mrs. Miller fell out of the buggy, her hair catching in a wheel. In this condition she was dragged several blocks. After the horse was stopped and before medical aid arrived some one stole her gold watch and purse containing $17.

Mrs. Miller is in the hospital here, her head horribly mangled, and there is little chance of her recovery.

WOMEN SHOULD BE ALLOWED TO STARVE

LONDON, Sept. 17.—Mr. George Bernard Shaw has returned to London and is in the limelight with a letter on the forcible feeding of the suffragettes which, for lack of more exciting matter, occupies leading places in this morning's papers.

"After promising that suffragettes who commit crimes, like attempted arson, require to be restrained, Mr. Shaw says the method of restraining them has placed the government in a dilemma. The only method of restraint at present available is imprisonment, and prisoners, by the expedient of voluntary starvation, could always force upon the community the alternative of either removing the restraint or seeing them die."

He adds: "To keep a prisoner would mean allowing her to starve herself to death. In such an extremity it seems to me that a prisoner's right to commit suicide would have to be recognized. As long as the government places within the prisoner's reach a sufficiency of food, I do not see how it could be held accountable for the prisoner's death any more than if she committed suicide in any other manner. If a woman meets me on Waterloo bridge and says: 'Give me a five-pound note or I'll jump into the Thames and drown myself as soon as you have gone a sufficient distance to prevent you from holding me,' I really do not see how I could reasonably comply with her request, because if it were established as a rule of conduct that I was bound to do so, or else be held guilty of the woman's death, all the women in London might make me stand and deliver in turn until I was a beggar."

"In the same way, if the government is bound to release every prisoner who threatens to commit suicide by starvation, then all the criminals can compel jail delivery and practically abolish all legal methods of dealing with crime."

"My conclusion, therefore, is that if the prisoners in Mountjoy, Mrs. Leigh and Miss Gladys Evans, sentenced for the Dublin affair, are determined to commit suicide by starvation, they must be allowed to do so and the government could not be held responsible for their deaths if it could convince the public that they had plenty of food within reach."

"This is cold logic, and it has been evident to intelligent observers for some time that the moment the militant suffragists overstepped the line which separates what I may call pardonable ructions from offences against public safety, which no community could be persuaded to tolerate, they would drive the government to this cold logic."

AIRMAN DROPS ON LIVE WIRE

LATONIA, O., Sept. 14.—While descending in his parachute after jumping from a balloon, which had been driven by the wind a considerable distance from the starting point, John St. Clair, aged 27, of Boston, Mass., was frightfully burned about the body, hands and feet yesterday when he came in contact with a trolley wire carrying 22,000 volts of current.

Three thousand people who were on the Latonia fair grounds saw the accident and were powerless to aid St. Clair until the electric current had been shut off by the street car company's generating plant.

St. Clair is known for his daring and skillful parachute jumping. In spite of the unfavorable weather yesterday he decided to carry out his daily program at the Latonia fair grounds.

When he made his parachute leap he miscalculated the landing and dropped on several high voltage feed wires. He was taken to the West Penn hospital, Pittsburgh, where hopes are held out for his recovery.

DECLINE IN FICTION
READING IN LIBRARY
MARKING EVOLUTION

LIVERPOOL, England, Sept. 20.—On the second day of the meeting of the Library Association at Liverpool a paper was read by Mr. Doubleday of Hamstead entitled, "Public Libraries and the Public."

Mr. Doubleday said that one of the most noteworthy features of library evolution was the continued decrease of fiction circulated. In London it amounted to almost 40 per cent, and almost every library reported a steady decline in this respect, and an increased demand for educational works.

Universities and other educational bodies had recognized that the whole trend of modern library work was towards education and were anxiously seeking their cooperation. The charge that libraries had socialistic tendencies Mr. Doubleday rebutted. He insisted that they were perfectly unpolitical and were supported by men of all creeds.

He appealed for the cessation of purely destructive criticism which was sometimes heard in public speeches on the subject of libraries. Public libraries had come to stay, and every library administrator would welcome criticism that would tend to make libraries more effective than they were.

Mr. Faxan, one of the 11 American delegates commissioned by the American Library Association to convey greetings to English association, called attention to the fact that in nearly every American library there was a room set apart for children, and there was also now an attempt being made to instruct the children in the use of books and libraries.

BABE, ARE YOU MAN OR APE? DO TELL!

BALTIMORE, Sept. 15.—On Babe, a cute little monkey that grins at visitors at the Biological Laboratory of the Johns Hopkins University, rests the responsibility of determining whether his race is, or is not, related to the human tribe.

There has hardly been an hour since he came into this world several weeks ago that he has not been under the close surveillance of learned scientists. In the effort to forge Babe into the missing link between the ape and man Dr. John E. Watson, Director of the Psychological Laboratory, is the moving spirit, and it is under his direction that all the experiments are being made.

Before Babe drew his first breath of life in the laboratory his parents had been watched for months. They were intelligent apes and were naturally presumed to be the proper parents of a probably more than usually intelligent offspring.

But Babe is being trained in human ways, and presently, when it is feasible to take him from the care of his mother, it is planned to make his schooling still more elaborate. If it is found that he can be taught to do things human-like every effort will be made to develop his mind along lines that will fairly tax his mental capacity to assimilate human knowledge.

EX-KING MANUEL STIRRED
GENDARME'S SUSPICION

PARIS, Sept. 20.—A very swell appearing youth was strolling along the Champs Elysees. In his buttonhole was the rosette of the Legion of Honor. Two gendarmes approached, their swords clanking.

"You are too young to be a chevalier of the Legion of Honor," said one. "It's a punishable offense to wear a Legion of Honor decoration unless you belong."

"I'm not a chevalier; I'm higher than that," replied the youth.

"An officer, maybe," sneered the gendarme.

"Higher than that, too," quoth the youth.

"Ah, a commander," observed the officer, contorting his face in an effort to multiply his sneer.

"I'm higher than a commander," said the youth blandly.

"Oh, I see," responded the gendarme. "You are of the Grand Cross. This is a little bit too much. You come along to the station with us."

The young man went along. At the station he handed the Commissary of Police his card. He was ex-King Manuel, of Portugal. That was all. He also established his identity, too. Laughing, he left the station.
